Area Chamber of Commerce

Sign Usage Policy and Fee Schedule

Sign Content: Sign content should promote the Watertown community. Messages must highlight events, sales, and other happenings. All content loaded to the sign must be appropriate and reflective of the Chamber's mission. Personal and campaign messages are prohibited.

Sign content will be managed by the Chamber's Executive Director. Provided that the advertisement language fits these guidelines, space can be sold and loaded to the sign without Chamber Executive Committee approval. If the Executive Director has questions about the content of an advertisement, the Chamber's Executive Committee should be consulted.

No single advertisement shall run for more than three weeks. The Chamber agrees to limit the number of advertisers to eight per advertising cycle. All advertising shall be sold on a first-come-first-serve basis. The Chamber's Executive Committee shall resolve any disputes.

The Watertown Area Chamber of Commerce reserves the right to alter any ad placed and to reject any and all advertising.
